upon the subject : OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF COMMONWEALTH OF VA.,

RICHMOND, March 28, 1866. Mr. J. B. Goode, Genito. Po. shatan Co . Va .: Dear Sir,-I am just in receipt your of letter (without date) stating that you were elected sheriff of Powhatan county at the election held for county officers last summer, and not being advised as to the term of your office. and whether an election of sheriff will take place this spring, desiring information from me upon that subject.

In reply, I have to state that, by the new Constitution, the voters of each county are required to elect the following officers, viz: a clerk, commissioner of the revenue, and surveyor, for the term of six years; an attorney for the Commonwealth, for the term of four years; and a sheriff, for the term of two years. Constables and overseers of the poor to be elected by the voters as may be prescribed by law. By an ordinance of the Convention which assembled at Alexandria on the 13th May, 1864, It was provided that "all officers elected under said ordinance shall enter upon their duties immediately upon election and qualification, and the fractions of the year between the times of election and time at which the term of office shall expire shall be counted for one year.

The law relating to the time of holding el-ctions for country officers (Code of Virginia, chapter seven, section three,) remains unchanged, as also the law declaring when the terms of office of said officers shall expire. (Code, chapter eight, section twenty-three.)

By the first, you will perceive that fixed for holding elections of sheriffs (but not | 1/1 commissioners of the revenue, owing to the constitutional provision aforesaid.) is the fourth Thursday in May in every second year, counting from the fourth Thursday in May, 1862. By the second, you will see that the term of office of sheriffs commences on the first day of January succeeding the election. Your term of office will therefore expire on the first day of January, 1867, as will that of all the sheriffs elected last year, and the period of election of new sheriffs will be the fourth Thursday in At the same time, under the law as it now stands, the election of constables should take place. Elections for justices of the peace, attorneys for the Commonwealth, and overseers of the poor, should be held on the fourth Thursday in May, 1868, and for clerks, commissioners of the revenue, and surveyors, on the fourth Thursday in May, 1870. Yours, very respectfully.

J. M. HERNDON, Secretary of the Commonwealth.

THE VETO AND THE LAWYERS.—The exposition of the legal objections to the Civil Rights bill, in the late veto of President Johnson, is so overwhelming a condemnation of that measure, that its very supporters confess that their reputation as lawyers has been put to shame. The New York Times says:

"The analysis of the details is of so keen and searching a character, the logic is so irresistible that we should hope even the strongest advocates of the measure will see how vastly important it is that the constitutional power of the veto should exist, and how important also, in a higher sense, it is that such a constitutional power should be entrusted to a President endowed with judgment, discretion, and most uncommon courage.

"The strictly legal interpretation which the President applies to particular sections of the act is so overwhelmingly strong that the members 'learned in the law,' who voted for it. can hardly help blushing to find themselves so entirely at fault, under the sharp logic of a layman. So far as we can learn the sentiment of the more discreet portion of the majority that voted for the bill, they are ready to confess that the President's reasons are too strong for them, and they are fain to fall back on what they call his political animus to excuse their them cheap. non-acceptance of his arguments."

IN THE COUNTY COURT OF FAIRFAX County, March Court, 1866, Benjamin F. Johnson vs. Thomas T. Johnson and others-in chancery.

The Court doth adjudge, order and decree that the said Thomas T. Johnson do settle an account of his transactions as guardian of the said Benjamin F. Johnson, before one of the Commissioners of this Court, and that the said Commissioners before proceeding to state and settle account, give notice of the time and place of settling said account by advertisement in the Alexandria Gazette for four successive weeks; ard that the said Commissioner shall report his proceedings herein, with any matter deemed pertinent, or that either party may require. It contains a large amount of animal matter in a highly concentrated form, which, combined with its soluble bone phosphate of lime, cannot fail to render it very valuable as a fertilizer.—

Notwithstanding we believe it to be the best super-phosphate in the market, yet, by a pro-cess peculiar in its manufacture, whereby the expenses are lessened, we are enabled to sell it very low, with a liberal discount to dealers.
